Information for exhibitors

Great Events Catering XPO AB is the restaurateur at Scandinavian XPO and holds the alcohol licence and the right to sell and serve alcoholic drinks. The serving of alcoholic drinks covers all restaurants, halls, congress areas and public areas at the site.

Under Swedish alcohol legislation*, all alcohol to be served must also be purchased by the licence holder (Great Events Catering XPO), and as an exhibitor you are not permitted to bring alcohol you have purchased yourself to the event. The same legislation also prohibits the giving out of unopened bottles and taking alcohol away from the site. As any alcohol brought on to the site contravenes this legislation, alcohol found in the exhibition hall that has not been purchased by Great Events Catering XPO will be confiscated for the period that the exhibitor remains in the hall. (The alcohol will be returned to the exhibitor on leaving Scandinavian XPO.)

*The Swedish Alcohol Act, ch. 8, § 24 Prohibition of storage and consumption, and §§ 9 and 12 of the Swedish Alcohol Tax Act (1994:1564).

The act bans alcoholic drinks being brought on to the Scandinavian XPO site – any such alcohol will be confiscated.
